

THE BLAIRMORE ENTERPRISE

VOL. III. NO. 22.

BLAIRMORE, ALBERTA, THURSDAY, JUNE 1, 1911

$2.00 YEARLY

News! News!

A few interested persons have found out the truth of the inner workings of The BLAIRMORE CASH STORES. After guessing at our sales, expenses and interest on investment, they herald the fact to the people of the Pass that we are NOT MAKING MONEY. We have been trying to advertise this fact for four months. We are satisfied with a workingman's wage, expenses and interest on investment. The other man is trying to take from you working men Wages, Interest, and a good "stake" besides.

When you hear of your neighbor owing money to your grocer, REMEMBER you are helping to carry this debt. Therefore, deal at

THE CASH STORE

Blairmore Liquor Store

THE LIQUOR STORE OF QUALITY

CHINEE MEN
hall the superiority of our WINES and WHISKEYS
and say that even

Sam Suay
does not take the place of our WINES & WHISKEYS
as a wholesome and nutritious beverage

Phone Your Orders To No. 45, and You Can Depend on Prompt Delivery.

M. Rosse Proprietor

Open 8 a.m. Close 6 p.m. Saturdays 9.30 p.m.

Phone 26.

C. HISCOCKS & Co.

The Exclusive Grocers

Fresh on Thursday

Tomatoes
Cabbage
Parsnips
FINE STOCK.

Lettuce
Turnips
Carrots
TRY SOME

From now on our store closes at 1 p.m. Wednesdays

Don't Forget The Place :---

C. Hiscocks & Co.

Between 8th and 9th Avenues
Victoria Street

BLAIRMORE, - ALBERTA

NURSING

MATERNITY NURSING

Apply
Mrs. J. Drawer E.
BLAIRMORE, ALBERTA

Not Guilty

In the supreme court at Macleod on Friday last before Justice Beck, Michel Rosse of Blairmore, was found not guilty on the charge of attempting to interfere with the administration of Justice on February 23, last, by bringing Inspector Belcher of the R. N. W. M. P. in the case of Antonio Nicoletti, charged with attempting to murder William Hewittson at Passburg, on February 20. The jury was out five minutes. Nicoletti was tried on Thursday and the jury late that night brought in a verdict of acquittal.

The Coleman and Frank football players met on the grounds in the park on Saturday evening last and played a well contested game. The home players won with a score of one to nil.

We notice by our local excitement, the Coleman Miner, that the upstairs of the brewery at Blairmore "will be beautifully ceiled with Iceland brick mahogany." We must admit that "Iceland brick mahogany" is a new one-on-one. Next.

BRISCO'S THE STORE FOR MEN

Victoria Street

Blairmore, Alta.

Successor to Smith & Hargreaves, - The Corner Store

Foster Said : - "After the 25th we will have nice warm weather! He is right! Believe him and come and buy a Good Straw Hat, or some light Summer Underwear--or I will tell you what we will have on Saturday -- Some Nice Soft Shirts for summer

PROGRESSING FAVORABLY

Rate-Payers of Blairmore Held a Meeting on Monday Night and Voted

IN FAVOR OF INCORPORATION.

Many Leading Citizens Present and Supported the Motion

At a meeting of the rate-payers of the village of Blairmore held in Budd's hall, at 8 p.m. on Monday evening last, for the purpose of having Blairmore incorporated into a town municipality, the following motion was put:

"We, the undersigned, rate-payers of the village of Blairmore, in the province of Alberta, assembled in Budd's hall, Victoria street, this date, Monday, May 29th, 1911, hereby authorize the village council to apply on behalf of the said village to the Lieutenant-Governor of the province of Alberta, for the erection of the village into a town municipality."

The foregoing motion was carried by a large majority. Amongst those who were present and who voted for the motion were T. Frayer, W. A. Beebe, D. A. Sinclair, John Angus Macdonald, H. E. Lyon and L. Dutil.

Two months from this date will have to elapse before Blairmore can be legally called a town. A notice of application by the council to the Lieutenant-Governor for the incorporation of the village into a town, must be advertised in the local paper for one month, and the application after being forwarded to the Lieutenant-Governor in council, has to lay in abeyance for one month.

So by this it will be necessary for us to see the last of July before we will be able to call Blairmore an incorporated town. The law makes the work slow but we will get there.

Conciliation Board

A meeting of the conciliation board, appointed to settle the disputes between the miners and the coal operators of this district, will probably meet at Frank about the middle part of next week. Rev. Dr. Gordon, the chairman, is unable to leave Winnipeg before the 5th of June.

Coleman Notes

The Al G. Barnes animal circus showed here on Wednesday. Quite a number of people were in attendance.

The Coleman and Frank football players met on the grounds in the park on Saturday evening last and played a well contested game. The home players won with a score of one to nil.

We notice by our local excitement, the Coleman Miner, that the upstairs of the brewery at Blairmore "will be beautifully ceiled with Iceland brick mahogany." We must admit that "Iceland brick mahogany" is a new one-on-one. Next.

"The Lost Is Found; the Dead Is Made Alive Again"

There was no fatted calf killed and, so far as we know, there was no particular finger decorated with a bright shining ring on Saturday morning last, but there was a joyful time when the news reached Blairmore and the other parts of the Pass that Louis Thebaud, who had been missing ever since the evening of May 21st, had been found alive. It was a glad time when they said "the lost is found" and "the dead is made alive again."

Mr. Thebaud (who is better known as "Coxie") left the camp of the Head Syndicate, at the South Fork, at 5 o'clock on Sunday evening, May 21st, to walk to Blairmore, a distance of about 14 miles. He had never attempted to cross over this trail before but he thought that he would have no difficulty in reaching his destination about 12 p.m. that night. He had walked about nine miles when he discovered that he had strayed from the crooked and narrow trail. He continued walking all night, but as the sky became cloudy at an early hour and immediately followed, this was the worst snow and hill storm that had ever visited this section of the country, at this time of the year, for over thirty years. Mr. Thebaud got farther out of the road. After travelling all the previous night and all day Monday, the anxious traveller made a fire and rested nearby.

After a few hours sleep Mr. Thebaud, weary and lonesome, arose early on Tuesday morning and proceeded on his journey. The weather was still unpleasant and there was nothing to do under the circumstances but to keep up courage and continue walking. This he did until darkness overshadowed the earth when he again put on another fire and laid himself down for another snooze.

Long before dawn on Wednesday he resumed arduous and tedious toil of the previous days, yet no living thing came in sight, save the hawks and crows which hovered around expecting that tiresome traveller to succumb when they (the wild birds) would feast with delight on his carcass.

On Wednesday Mr. Thebaud counted his matches and found that only four remained. He carefully made another fire in which he threatened to roast all the coyotes, mountain lions and other ravenous beasts which would dare to come near him. But those wild things of the forest, climbing the hills and mountains nearby, viewed from the distance the fiery glow, kept out of danger's reach and acted as guardian angels over the solitary traveller.

On Thursday, long before the birds had started to sing their morning song, Mr. Thebaud was on his journey but it was still snowing and only very little (if any) progress was made. When darkness told of the approach of night, Mr. Thebaud gathered together some small branches of trees and made another fire by which he was warmed himself and then fell asleep.

On Friday morning the weather had not abated but Mr. Thebaud dexterously resumed his wearisome journey, hungry and footsore. Late in the afternoon the

INSTALLING MACHINERY

West Canadian Collieries Increasing Their Blairmore
Plant.

FIRST-CLASS AND UP-TO-DATE

Are Having Large Boiler, Generator, Engine, Fan, Etc.
Installed

The West Canadian Collieries are installing more machinery at their Blairmore mine, and are enlarging the boiler house and power house to make room for the additional machinery.

A new boiler of one hundred and fifty horse power has arrived and is being put in place along side several others in the large boiler house. In the power house they are installing a two hundred horse power engine and a seventy-five K. W. generator to assist those already there in giving all the power required. A new fan, with a capacity of about 150,000 cubic feet of air per minute, and a new one hundred and thirty horse power motor which will be used to drive the fan, have just arrived and are being installed on the hill South-East of the main entry to the mine.

With the installation of more machinery, the Blairmore mines and plant will be well equipped and in first-class condition. The most casual observer will admit that the West Canadian Collieries aim to have their mine plants so complete as to leave nothing lacking for the safety and comfort of their employees. The West Canadian Collieries and the town of Blairmore are very fortunate in having as general manager of the mine a person so capable of filling that important office as Mr. R. W. Coulthard.

Now ceased to fall for the first time since Sunday night; the clouds rolled away and that lone some fatigued traveller was delighted to catch a glimpse of the fiery monster which rules the day. He immediately scaled a mountain, took his course and proceeded in a northerly direction. He walked all that night and was still walking when a search party, consisting of John Angus Macdonald, L. Loughhead, K. Slugg, J. Fisher and "Soap" Smith, found him at 6.30 o'clock on Saturday morning. Louie saw Dick Slugg, passing along on horse back and the former hailed him. The other members of the party soon saw the strayed traveller and immediately there was a glad re-union. Louis Thebaud, whom everybody thought was dead, was given some warm drink and a little bread. He then went to sleep for about two hours, after which he was put on a horse and taken to Blairmore and from thence to the hospital at Frank where Mr. Mackay and his able staff of nurses gently took care of him until he was able to move about on Monday.

From Sunday until Saturday the when found by the search party, the Alberta Trading Co.

TELEPHONE 147

Headquarters For

High-Class

Groceries

Fresh Fruit

& Vegetables

This week we will have
California Loose Lettuce
Radishes
Green Onions
Fresh Rhubarb
Cauliflower
Cucumbers
Bananas
Oranges
Lemons and Coconuts

Our prices will suit you. The quality of goods will more than please you.
WATCH OUR WINDOW EACH WEEK

ALBERTA TRADING CO.
The Store That PleaseGales & Hamel
Blairmore. - Alta

W. A. Beebe

Real Estate and Insurance

Broker in Mines and Mining Stocks

Houses for sale or rent and rents collected.

Issuer of Marriage Licenses and Notary Public

VICTORIA STREET

Blairmore. Alta.

MRS. H. GEBO

Millinery Parlors

hats Trimmed and Re-Modelled

Next the Cash Store

Victoria Street

Blairmore. Alta.

McKenzie & Jackson

Barbers, Notaries, Etc.
Shirtwaist Block

MACLULIN MCKENZIE, LESLIE A. JACKSON

MacLeod Alberta

Mr. Thebaud had wandered around in the forest all alone without food or shelter. It was not until Friday afternoon that he became known in Blairmore that Louis Thebaud had left the South Fork at the above stated time. Knowing that he had not arrived in Blairmore, the people became anxious and a search party was immediately organized. They left at 4.30 p.m. same evening. After considerable difficulty in passing over trails where heavy wind falls, coupled with snow from three to four feet in depth, had piled, the party halted for the night, and bright and early on the following morning they started on their journey and found the object of their search about seven miles south of Blairmore.

Mr. Thebaud believes that on Friday when he first saw the sun, he was fifteen miles south of Blairmore. He further believes that he would have been able to reach Blairmore that day even if the search party had not found him.

AN ANGEL.

There Was Mischief Afoot,
and She Located It.

By MARTHA MC-WILLIAMS.

Margaret came from the orchard whistling cheerily, a beaded basket of jewel red apples poised carefully upon her bare brown head. Miss Prudence, her mother, was in the kitchen, now seated at the writing-table, but had to smile a bit when Margaret broke out: "Now, Prudence, please, come at me with the sarcasm about whistling girls and crowing hens; I know you hate my sole musical accomplishment, but this day is enough to set a grave image whistling, even dancing, if it was of anything softer than granite. You ought to be out in it. The orchard is a place exhausted. I didn't know there was such a prosaic as apple gathering and other making could set themselves to music."

"Eh-m," Miss Prudence said. "Eh-m; May I ask if Jimmy Blair is out there, as no promised to be?"

"Of course! A gentleman keeps his promise, doesn't he?" Margaret answered, turning her head, but bushing in spite of herself. "Those cooking things do have such attractions!"

"I'm glad you did," Margaret retorted shamelessly. "I've got out to meet everybody. Oh, Aunt Prue, do make a potato pudding! Make it very rich and have lots of thick, sweet real bacon sauce."

"To away, you baggage!" Miss Prudence said over her shoulder. "Who told you what Jimmy likes best? I've the greatest mind to make dried apple pies, just to see if he would know the difference. Jimmy, Margaret as she spits the last sentence."

Margaret blushed very red and began to pout. "You mean Jimmy is not gone on me; he's not in his right mind," she said. "But you all wrong, Aunt Prue. I don't believe he's been away from me all week. He's been here at least all this week; he's been as kind as could be, but, distant, as if he was afraid I wouldn't understand."

"Then there's mischief afoot, what sort I've got to do?" Miss Prudence said vigorously. "Her head is down, her hands are out, and she's out of her hair," clean idiotic about a bit of a thing. It was Jimmy about you, all last week and all the weeks before it, since you came to stay with us."

"Mischief of a foot, but where?" she mentally repeating to herself as she whisked about the trim kitchen, her brows puckered, her eyes inscrutable. On the surface she could see nothing. Nobody had openly any right or reason to be interfering between Jimmy and Margaret, or the same as her parents. Moreover, he never had the least shadow of an entanglement. True, various and sundry young women had been setting their cap at him—pretty girls, modestly set but bold—had overdone the rôle of the friend. Miss Irene gave a great start. There was the root of the trouble; his name, Videlia Bane. Jimmy had rather made up to her in the weeks just before Peggy came. Now that she thought of it he had squared Delia, and she had been buying and buying, buying many things for her at the strawberry supper and fair. And Delia, it was well known, wanted to marry and settle herself. She had three younger sisters crowding her in the house next. Naturally she would do what she could to help him, naturally, the best chance in all East town."

But how she had done it! Miss Prudence could not fathom, although she studied the problem almost to the detriment of her hair. She sat down with a frown, and after a long, silent dinner rapturous and talked a great deal of his appetite and of many other things, but somehow did not eat with his usual zest, although he made a fair meal. Nobody with such palate could help doing well with such things as Miss Prudence set before him. Jimmy assured Margaret more than once that if such cooking ran in the family her future husband was the luckiest fellow alive.

"I think so too. That's why it's so painful to see him come along," Margaret said at last. "Only think, Jimmy, I'm almost twenty-one and have never had a real business beau! Isn't it shameful when Aunt Prue's got to tell her all her pretties and the Hattie-says-she's-Fancy an heiress without a sweetheart?"

"Such destination is painful—so painful I hardly believe it exists," Jimmy said, turning away his head, then breaking consequently into tears of anguish again.

Miss Prudence, watching him, saw that his teeth had set before he could speak. Of the saving grace enlightenment in part. She meant to make it whole before she made it worse. As soon as dinner was over she sent Jimmy up the stairs, where she wheelled upon him, asking plumply, "What cook and bull story has Delia told you?"

"Who said she had told me anything?" Jimmy retorted. "Besides, she didn't need to. My eyes are fairly trustworthy."

"Sure of it?" Miss Prudence asked. "If you are, please to let me what they have told you about my Peggy. I know you think you've got a grievance, but it's not exactly a grievance, but a snub."

"It is a snub, but I don't blame her for it. I can't. She—she must have met the other fellow first," Jimmy said, turning away his head. Miss Prudence stamped her foot. "What other fellow?"

Jimmy answered miserably:

"The one I saw her kissing and hugging Saturday out under the chestnut trees. She was all dressed up white and low-necked, and they were carrying on like mad. She was all dressed up, too. I—had to go to get when I heard her talking, but after I caught a word or two, I sneaked away like a whipped hound."

"No doubt," Miss Prudence said angrily. "But tell me this: when you went to see her, were you dressed up and after supper over to the Baneses. That right?" Jimmy nodded.

"Now, tell me straight what Miss Delia told you and how she came to do it."

"I won't," Jimmy said stoutly. "I'm tellin' you, I'd seen enough, and Delia had made me mighty miserable."

All this was to set me right—no, I know where Margaret was."

"Playing, play, acting with her?"

Miss Prudence broke in. "Did she tell you that—tell you how the girls have been practising again? I heard her when she was dressing up in her brother's clothes in my room, purring sweet-heart to her. I know. I was there, up on the big dead trunk, holding my play book and laughing at it to kill. Now, don't you wish you had sneaked in there?"

"I'm not," Jimmy said firmly.

"You don't mean there aren't any other fellow?" Jimmy cried incredulously.

Miss Prudence snuffed. "Of course I don't mean any such thing. There are lots of other fellows, but I don't know who she likes any of them best unless he is the very chunkiehead I'm talking to right now."

"Miss Prudence?" Jimmy ejaculated, though caught right in the arms. He was shamed, but he had the lead, as far as he was going to cry.

Thus Margaret came upon them and called out roughly: "It is to be regular Uncle Jimmy! Well, I don't mind so long as you're here, but I do mind so long as you're not here. I'm not going to be married in the world you say," Jimmy said, darting to her. Then as he caught both her hands and laid them against his breast he turned a beaming face upon Miss Prudence, saying, "Peggy is sweet enough, pretty enough, anything you like, but I am too much to look for a man to trouble in trouble, yet, and never be in it with our Aunt Prue."

Lord Chancellor on Canada.

In Lord Chancellor's letters to his son, Feb. 21, is quoted from London Feb. 2, 1750. It begins:

"My Dear Friend—You have by this time, I hope and believe, made such progress in the Italian language that you can read it with tolerable fluency. I have not yet had time to learn it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language certainly does not remain so in Italian."

"I am, in particular, the case of a certain Italian author to whom the Romans, from the admiration they have of him, have given the epithet of li divino. I mean Dante. Though I have not yet learned it as easily as in other language the easiest books are generally the best, for whatever author is obscure and difficult in his own language

ROYAL YEAST CAKES

MOST PERFECT MADE

We know and users of Royal Yeast Cakes know that these are the best goods of that kind in the World. Bread made with Royal Yeast will keep moist and fresh longer than that made with any other. Do not experiment—there is no other "just as good."

E. W. GILLET, LTD., Toronto, Ont.

Awarded highest honor at all Expositions

Montreal

MADE IN CANADA

WHAT EVERY WOMAN OUGHT TO KNOW

READY REFERENCE BOOK

Containing over 300 pages of valuable information which every girl contemplating marriage ought to know and no married woman can afford to be without. Important subjects more fully explained with full page illustrations. This valuable book will be mailed in plain wrapper post paid to any address in Canada upon receipt of one dollar ($1.00).

The Ready Reference Book Co.,
21 Adelaide St., E.,
TORONTO, ONT.

Reform Most Needed

Parents and every street-corner orator—"I want that reform, I want housing reform, I want educational reform, I want—"

Bored voice—"Chloroform."

SUFFERED GREATLY FROM COLIC

Mrs. Alice Guenette, L'Immaculée Conception, Que., writes: "My little boy suffered greatly from colic. I gave him castor oil and other medicinal remedies, but with no relief. One day I saw Baby's Own Tablets advertised, so wrote for a box. I found them so good that I always keep them in the house and would use no other medicine for baby." The experience of Mrs. Guenette has been that of thousands of other mothers. Not only do the tablets cure colic, but they cure constipation, vomiting, indigestion, make teething easy, banish worms and make baby bright, active and happy. The tablets are sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brooklyn, Ont.

"Can't I persuade you to subscribe for a copy of our latest book on north pole exploration?"

"No, sir, you couldn't persuade me to take it as a gift. I spent four years carrying mail in North Dakota, two years driving a cab in Minneapolis, and we just escaped from the snow. Get a book on hunting in Central Africa!"

Keep Baby's Skin Clear

Mothers, do you realize the importance of caring for baby's tender, easily irritated skin? Neglect or unsuitable methods may give rise to simple rashes or tiny sores. Torturing, disfiguring humors follow and threaten to become permanent. Not only is Cuticura Soap the purest and sweetest for baby's bath but, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, it affords the speediest and most economical method of clearing baby's skin and scalp of eczemas, rashes, itchings and irritations, and of establishing a permanent condition of skin and hair health.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold by regular dealers in all the Drug & Cosmetic Stores, Boston, Mass., and for Calcutta, India, the East, and South Africa.

To drive birds out of an orchard an Australian school teacher has patented an electric scarecrow, a clock mechanism at intervals with bells scattered through the trees.

There are now fourteen Protestant churches in Rome, three Anglican Episcopal, one Methodist, one Baptist, two Methodist, four Baptist, one Waldeesian, one German Lutheran and one of the Free Italian church.

A little fellow rushed breathlessly into a drug store.

"Please, sir, some liniment and some cement."

"What's the trouble?" asked the clerk.

"Mam hit pop on the head with a plate."

The weaking is always stubborn—

it takes a strong man to yield!

HOW'S THIS?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Cataract that cannot be removed by surgery.

F. J. GHERI, O. O. Toledo, O.

We are the oldest and best known perfumers in all business circles. We have never sold any obligations made by his firm.

Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

Hall's Calcaria Cure is the blood and mucous of the system. Testimonials are numerous. It is sold by all drugists.

Half a Family Pill for constipation.

It is well to know that alcohol often remains an obstinate porous plaster, and the unsightly stains which it often leaves, when soap and water fail.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and water.

It is well to know that the best way to remove the stains is to use a soap and

DON'T NEGLECT
YOUR KIDNEYS.

NOT IMPRESSED.

Doughty Colonel Saw Little Remarkable About the Pyramids.
Lieutenant-General Sir James Wolfe Marley has written his book "Rough and Ready" in 1872, and served in the Ashanti campaign in 1880, being in command of the troops of commandos. He was twice wounded in despatches for service in South Africa from 1880 to 1886, and was Master-General of the Ordnance from 1890 to 1895. He was an adjutant-commander of the Ninth (Seconded) Division in India.

Sir James was a brilliant and forcible orator, and a brilliant writer, to enliven the dullest gathering. He is a clever raconteur, and gets all the points possible out of his stories. One of his best stories is a yarn dealing with his own branch of the service.

Six years ago, a certain colonel in the Royal Horse Artillery had the reputation of lacking in imagination. He was a simpleton, and a good friend, some friend, and naturally went to see the Pyramids. "So these are the Pyramids, eh?" he said, as he gazed at the vast structures. "They're regular, aren't they? They're not won- derful—stupendous, eh?" "Oh, yes," grunted the colonel, "I suppose they're right, but I don't care!"

"I should say they're fine!" said his enthusiastic friend. "Think of their standing for all these thousand of years!" "I don't care," said the Pyramids-impressed. "Give me some of batteries of guns and I'll guarantee to knock them to pieces inside a week."

Another of his stories concerns an irate old colonel who was bringing home from abroad two laughing jackasses.

On board ship he engaged a cabin boy to attend to them. One morning the boy found that the larger of them had died in the night. In great fear he knocked at the door of the colonel.

"Hullo, what's the matter?" asked the owner of the animals. "If you please, sir, you stammered the boy, you've come to see about your laughing jackasses."

"Well, is there anything wrong with them?" "Yes, sir, there's nothing wrong with them, but one of 'em ain't got anything to laugh at this morning."

Sir James is vacating his command in India on the completion of his tour of duty, and is expected to return to his home in Peeblesshire.

Contortionist and Tiger.

An East Indian, who had learned some of the elementary principles of "uggerly and contortion," put his knowledge to a decidedly practicable use as well as novel use on winning the heart of a girl he had been in love with for a year.

When the Hindoo had reached the top of one of the mounds he saw a tiger ahead of him 500 or 600 yards. But the tiger did not run him behind a mound the tiger had seen him and began to bound toward him at topmost speed. Having no means of defense, he was unable to run for the tree, but though he tried it, and put forth his utmost strength, the tiger overtook him.

What he did to him in sheer desperation he resolved upon an unusual scheme. Just as he disappeared for an instant from the tiger's sight, he suddenly sprang into the air and stretched out his legs at right angles, curled up his head so as to look between his legs to the rear, and ex-claimed, "I'm here for the tree, but though me tried it, and put forth his utmost strength, the tiger overtook him."

What he did to him in sheer desperation he resolved upon an unusual scheme. Just as he disappeared for an instant from the tiger's sight, he suddenly sprang into the air and stretched out his legs at right angles, curled up his head so as to look between his legs to the rear, and ex-claimed, "I'm here for the tree, but though me tried it, and put forth his utmost strength, the tiger overtook him."

Minard's Liniment lumberman's friend.

Mistress—Nora, who is a policeman in the park today, has a baby. I hope you will remember my objection to her doing this.

Nora—Sure, man, no policeman would ever think of kissin' yer baby when I'm around.

We observe that this man's fingers are all twisted and bent into the most unattractive shapes.

"Poor fellow," we said to our friend. "Evidently he is a victim of rheumatism."

"No," our friend explained, "he is a lumberman, and between which those hideous rashes were issuing, he was actually placed above his two fiery eyes. His limbs were terribly twisted and bent, and the man he had been chasing, where was he?" "Always devoured by this terrible beast!" The tiger could not pause to turn and look back, and he disappeared into a friendly ridge a last awful yell caused him to redouble his pace. He was conquered by the unknown.

"Hold on, there!"

Here is a football story, told by J. W. Sutcliffe, who, in the opinion of many good judges, is the best goal-keeper in the world. Sutcliffe, at the age of forty-three, is vice-captain of Plymouth Argyle. Sutcliffe is a tall, slim, fit man, who has played for England under the blue and white, and Association codes.

"They have proved their mettle in thousands of cases and will continue to do so, I am sure," said the captain.

"So there's another rupture of Mount Vesuvius," said Mrs. Postington, as she took up her umbrella and started running down the mountain, but it didn't tell how it got afer."

"Tit-Bits.

The automobile factories of Michigan can employ 50,000 men, in addition to 20,000 engaged in the manufacture of parts.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS
FOR ALL KIDNEY DISEASES
RIGHT'S DISEASE
DIABETES MELLITUS
23 THE P.

Well insured.

The Bishop of Peterborough, Eng. (Dr. Glyn), will act as supporting bishop to the Queen at the coronation. He has been chosen for the distinction as, when vicar of Kensington, he prepared Her Majesty for the coronation.

A rich and benevolent millionaire was once boasting to Dr. Glyn of the amount he gave annually in charity. He said that he could easily secure him one of the best seats in Paradise. "Well," remarked the bishop on hearing the amount, "there is no competition against me. I have ever heard of."

Van Bulk

SURE CURE FOR SKIN INJURIES & DISEASES.

A purely herbal balm; best thing for the tender skin of children, yet powerful enough to heal an adult's chronic sore; highly antiseptic; eases pain and smarting soon as applied—that is Zam-Buk. Remember it is purely herbal—no mineral poisons, no animal fats. Power and purity combined!

All druggists and stores sell at 25c. a box.

It Wouldn't Hurt
Sunday School Teacher. If you are a good boy, Willie, you will go to heaven and have a gold crown on your head.

Willie—Not for mine, then. I had one of them things put on a tooth once.

THE BRIGHTEST DAY FOR EVERY WOMAN

Comes With Good Health Through the Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Her brightest day for every girl and every woman is the day when she looks well, feels well and is well; but with most of the fair sex such days are rare. They are often subject to painful languor, and the terrible weakness in the back, headaches that make everything seem blurred, and a constant aching in the limbs. Then, and other times, after girls and women through the lack of rich, red blood nature is calling for. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will help to lay or rest a robust health to thousands of women who are happy today because these Pills will make the rich, red blood that makes weak ones strong again. They have been proven over and over again. Here is further proof from Mrs. C. J. Brook, Manitou, Man., who says:

"I have been taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for the past three weeks, followed only by a short time of relaxation, and a strenuous two and half months' normal course in school. I am now in my second year at the Normal Training School. I had a heavy run in school with a large attendance, and consequently a large number of grades, than I found I was in a great nervous strain. This led to an overworking of the mind to teaching, soon resulted in a 'run down' condition. When vacation came I was unable to go to the attention to my condition as I thought the holidays would fully restore me, but as I resumed work again I soon found this was not the case. One morning I awoke in great distress, everything reeled before me and I almost fainted away. The lady with whom I was boarding advised me to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pill. She always spoke very highly of them, her daughter having used them with the most beneficial results following an attack of rheumatism. I decided to take her advice, and had only taken a few boxes when I began to improve in health—indeed gained my face had a healthy glow, and I gained in weight. I have since often recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to my friends, and have used them with equally beneficial results, and I believe the Pills to be a standard remedy for the ills for which you are suffering."

You can get these Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brookville, Ont.

What a terrible standard we set for our children when we remind them of the perfection of our childhood days.

These two ills are the accompaniment of a disordered stomach and torpid liver and are the cause of all disease. The surest and speediest way to restore health is to take Dr. Williams' Pills, which will restore the health of all, get rid of all the ills of life, and have proved their mettle in thousands of cases and will continue to do so, I am sure," said the captain.

"So there's another rupture of Mount Vesuvius," said Mrs. Postington, as she took up her umbrella and started running down the mountain, but it didn't tell how it got afer."

"Tit-Bits.

Intensive Farming
They used to have a farming rule of forty acres and a mole.

Results were won by later men with forty square feet, and a hen, and nowadays success we see
With forty inches and a bee.

In the Latest Style
She—How do you like my new dress?—It reminds me of a popular theatre.

—What do you mean?
He—Standing room only—Stray
Stories.

I OWE MY LIFE TO GIN PILLS

If you want to see a happy woman just call on Mrs. Mollie Dixon, 595 1/2 Ave., West Toronto.

"After years of suffering from Kidney Disease, I believe I owe my life to Gin Pills. Before I began using Gin Pills my back ached so much I could not stand on my shoes, but after taking three boxes of Gin Pills these all are gone. It is a pleasure for me to add one more testimonial to the grand reputation of Gin Pills."

MRS. M. DIXON,
595, 1/2 Ave., box, 6 for $2.50, at all druggists. Sample free if you write, N.
Drugg. & Chemical Co., Dept.
N.U., Toronto, Ont.

The original
Gin Pill made by National Drug and Chemical Co.,
Canada Limited,
Toronto, are sold
only in this box.

A Soft Answer
The Boss—Mr. Stubben, when you came in this morning I detected a trace of liquor about your person."

The Drunks—That's fine, sir! I think I have had my last beer.

Inconsiderate Nephew (The article is falling over precipices)—I say, sir, you're yelling and think of me! This will end me.

—I think you're a good boy, but your cold is, sir.

—I'm sorry, sir, I'm falling over precipices—I say, sir, you're yelling and think of me! This will end me.

—I think you're a good boy, but your cold is, sir.

The Baltic sea is the greatest water body in any body of water in the world. It averages one a day all the year round.

Jiggy showed us his young son, and told us with great pride it was his heir apparent.

"Well, wasn't it?"

"Hail, apparent nothing! It was just a bald baby."

Minard's Liniment lumberman's friend.

Mistress—Nora, who is a policeman in the park today, has a baby. I hope you will remember my objection to her doing this.

Nora—Sure, man, no policeman would ever think of kissin' yer baby when I'm around.

We observe that this man's fingers are all twisted and bent into the most unattractive shapes.

"Poor fellow," we said to our friend. "Evidently he is a victim of rheumatism."

"No," our friend explained, "he is a lumberman, and between which those hideous rashes were issuing, he was actually placed above his two fiery eyes. His limbs were terribly twisted and bent, and the man he had been chasing, where was he?" "Always devoured by this terrible beast!" The tiger could not pause to turn and look back, and he disappeared into a friendly ridge a last awful yell caused him to redouble his pace. He was conquered by the unknown.

"Hold on, there!"

Here is a football story, told by J. W. Sutcliffe, who, in the opinion of many good judges, is the best goal-keeper in the world. Sutcliffe is a tall, slim, fit man, who has played for England under the blue and white, and Association codes.

"They have proved their mettle in thousands of cases and will continue to do so, I am sure," said the captain.

"So there's another rupture of Mount Vesuvius," said Mrs. Postington, as she took up her umbrella and started running down the mountain, but it didn't tell how it got afer."

"Tit-Bits.

The automobile factories of Michigan can employ 50,000 men, in addition to 20,000 engaged in the manufacture of parts.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS
FOR ALL KIDNEY DISEASES
RIGHT'S DISEASE
DIABETES MELLITUS
23 THE P.

Well insured.

The Bishop of Peterborough, Eng. (Dr. Glyn), will act as supporting bishop to the Queen at the coronation. He has been chosen for the distinction as, when vicar of Kensington, he prepared Her Majesty for the coronation.

A rich and benevolent millionaire was once boasting to Dr. Glyn of the amount he gave annually in charity. He said that he could easily secure him one of the best seats in Paradise. "Well," remarked the bishop on hearing the amount, "there is no competition against me. I have ever heard of."

A PIONEER WEDDING.

First Knot Tied at Twin Lakes in the Grande Prairie.

First events in new localities are always of interest, and very often they are also significant. For instance, the first settling of the new western world in Canada means the breaking of a good many records, and an important chapter in that history some place is due an event so socially unique as the first white wedding in the wild.

At the little log cabin at Twin Lakes was recently celebrated the first white wedding in the Grande Prairie district of the new western north. It is known that the settlers here are of the type that may be soon lost in due course. The north is getting more like other places. Bye-and-bye there will be wedding style and hy-giene, world over.

The wedding at Twin Lakes is the one that marks real social history.

The houses in Grande Prairie are simple, and a part of the family house.

It is a good model house, and the walls are caulked with mud, the roof is of wood, and the whole dwelling is one story in height. But a log house of this kind is not the only one, and a great number of them will make it cozy. In this particular log house at Twin Lakes there had been a neighborhood party, and such like, and the importance of the wedding was not overlooked.

The ceremony was brief. A northern homesteader will not tolerate too much ceremony, and the bride will now go down to history as the first white man to get a white wife in the Grande Prairie.

The bride, Mrs. Frank Craiger, is added to the list of immortals. The Craigers are a family that has been granted a special grant of land, which is immensely popular, a wedding supper for all, and a honeymoon sleigh ride for the bride and groom, and some of the social features of Canadian life.

The wedding at Twin Lakes is the first of a total population of only 250 people—including 41 women—but every year is making great strides, and the wife and family are moving in from the north, bringing with it the whole round of social conventions and social relationships, is one of the most important features of our expanding Canadian life.

The bride, Mrs. Frank Craiger, is the first white woman to get a white husband in the Grande Prairie.

The wedding at Twin Lakes is the first of a total population of only 250 people—including 41 women—but every year is making great strides, and the wife and family are moving in from the north, bringing with it the whole round of social conventions and social relationships, is one of the most important features of our expanding Canadian life.

The bride, Mrs. Frank Craiger, is the first white woman to get a white husband in the Grande Prairie.

The wedding at Twin Lakes is the first of a total population of only 250 people—including 41 women—but every year is making great strides, and the wife and family are moving in from the north, bringing with it the whole round of social conventions and social relationships, is one of the most important features of our expanding Canadian life.

The bride, Mrs. Frank Craiger, is the first white woman to get a white husband in the Grande Prairie.

The wedding at Twin Lakes is the first of a total population of only 250 people—including 41 women—but every year is making great strides, and the wife and family are moving in from the north, bringing with it the whole round of social conventions and social relationships, is one of the most important features of our expanding Canadian life.

The bride, Mrs. Frank Craiger, is the first white woman to get a white husband in the Grande Prairie.

The wedding at Twin Lakes is the first of a total population of only 250 people—including 41 women—but every year is making great strides, and the wife and family are moving in from the north, bringing with it the whole round of social conventions and social relationships, is one of the most important features of our expanding Canadian life.

The bride, Mrs. Frank Craiger, is the first white woman to get a white husband in the Grande Prairie.

The wedding at Twin Lakes is the first of a total population of only 250 people—including 41 women—but every year is making great strides, and the wife and family are moving in from the north, bringing with it the whole round of social conventions and social relationships, is one of the most important features of our expanding Canadian life.

The bride, Mrs. Frank Craiger, is the first white woman to get a white husband in the Grande Prairie.

The wedding at Twin Lakes is the first of a total population of only 250 people—including 41 women—but every year is making great strides, and the wife and family are moving in from the north, bringing with it the whole round of social conventions and social relationships, is one of the most important features of our expanding Canadian life.

The bride, Mrs. Frank Craiger, is the first white woman to get a white husband in the Grande Prairie.

The wedding at Twin Lakes is the first of a total population of only 250 people—including 41 women—but every year is making great strides, and the wife and family are moving in from the north, bringing with it the whole round of social conventions and social relationships, is one of the most important features of our expanding Canadian life.

The bride, Mrs. Frank Craiger, is the first white woman to get a white husband in the Grande Prairie.

The wedding at Twin Lakes is the first of a total population of only 250 people—including 41 women—but every year is making great strides, and the wife and family are moving in from the north, bringing with it the whole round of social conventions and social relationships, is one of the most important features of our expanding Canadian life.

The bride, Mrs. Frank Craiger, is the first white woman to get a white husband in the Grande Prairie.

The wedding at Twin Lakes is the first of a total population of only 250 people—including 41 women—but every year is making great strides, and the wife and family are moving in from the north, bringing with it the whole round of social conventions and social relationships, is one of the most important features of our expanding Canadian life.

The bride, Mrs. Frank Craiger, is the first white woman to get a white husband in the Grande Prairie.

The wedding at Twin Lakes is the first of a total population of only 250 people—including 41 women—but every year is making great strides, and the wife and family are moving in from the north, bringing with it the whole round of social conventions and social relationships, is one of the most important features of our expanding Canadian life.

Toronto Type Foundry Co., Ltd.

CALGARY :: WINNIPEG :: REGINA

The Largest Printers' Supply House in Canada. We Carry in Stock Cylinder Presses, Job Presses, Paper Cutters, Type and Material. Can Fill Orders for Complete Equipment from our Stock. We are the Largest Ready Print Publishers in the West. We Publish Ready Prints from our Winnipeg, Calgary and Regina Houses.

Order From Nearest Branch

THIS WILL INTEREST YOU

EDDY'S "Royal George" Matches

the most perfect "STRIKE ANYWHERE" matches made, that are SAFE,

SURE,

and SILENT,

are sold in boxes, averaging 1000 matches to the box, for 10-cents a box.

You can't afford to pass this by.

ALWAYS EVERYWHERE IN CANADA, ASK FOR EDDY'S MATCHES.

Appleford Counter Check Book Company, Limited.

The best equipped factory for producing Counter Check Books in Canada.

Capacity

50,000 Counter Check Books per Day.

We are supplying the largest users of Counter Check Books in Canada with our "IMPERIAL BOOKS."

Appleford Counter Check Book Company, Limited.

We want publishers to act as our agents in all Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia towns. Write us for conditions and prices

Paternal Pride
"Your boy was just a little—er—wild when he was at college, wasn't he?"

"Oh! yes, he was generally a little wild at first. Couldn't get 'em over the plate, you know. But he always calmed down before the game was over."

"Holdaway's Corn Cuts takes the corn off the stalks," he replied. "Try it and prove it."

"So you are in love, eh?" sneered the first smoker. "Well, a woman is only a woman, but a good cigar is a good cigar."

"My girl is of rather a penitent stamp," responded the second smoker.

"The ridge which attracted me to her in the first place."

Flies and Mosquitoes carry disease and remove the cause of disease. They have tonic, helpful action on the whole system. They relieve nervousness, headache, backache, diphtheria, depression and suffering.

Beecham's Pills give the organs strength, improve bodily conditions and may be relied upon.

For Sure Relief

For females, Beecham's Pills are specially suitable. See instructions with each box.

Sold Everywhere.

In boxes 25c.

The University of Munich has nearly 8,000 students. Munich nearly 7,000, Berlin 6,000, Bonn 4,000, Heidelberg 2,400. In the principal universities of the empire about 60,000 students are now enrolled.

The Japanese never sleep with their heads on their pillows, but their dead are buried in that position.

SEE THE COCKSHUTT DEALER

The Emperor of the Air

Story of an Aviator Who Was Too Ambitious

By ALLEN G. LAMOND
Copyright by American Press Association, 1911

It was my part for months to use a party telephone wire with all its annoyances. I have waited for half an hour at a time while two women discussed a domestic problem or bit of scandal before being able to call up, some one with whom I needed to communicate immediately.

My telephone is in the upper hall, near my bedroom. One night I was awakened by a sharp ring. Jumping out of bed, I went to the telephone and took up the receiver.

"What?" I said.

No reply.

"Hello, central."

No reply.

"Hello! Hello! Did you call me up?"

Then there was a lot of clicking, at the end of which a woman's voice said:

"For heaven's sake, John, come at once! Bring help."

My name is John, and I knew the message was not for me, but some one was in trouble, and I realized the importance of getting the address at once.

"Where shall I come?" I asked.

"Why, I'm Ethel. I'm at home."

"Where is your home?"

"Oh, dear—85 Merton avenue."

There was a long silence. My connection was so broken I wondered that the receiver had been dropped rather than shut off. Then I heard a dialogue between a man and the woman who had been talking to me. The man spoke first.

"The emperor of the air. In my opinion, I ride above the clouds. I am always at war with the worms crawling on the face of the earth. When I like I swoop down and stay

"ARE YOU THE EMPEROR OF THE AIR?"
them with fire and sword or from my eye in the sky drop bombs upon them."

I did not hear this plainly and distinctly as I have written it, I simply gathered enough to fill it out. Then the woman said:

"To bed. You have to fly up to Mars tomorrow. You'll return to me—the American home for you?"

"You are right. I have nearly 30,000,000 miles to make. When I return I shall publish an account of my trip. I shall tell the world all about the Mars—Earth connection, and the greatest planetary problem of the ages."

"So you will. Now go to bed and get a good rest preparatory to your journey."

"Ethel, you're trying to fool me. If you say anything more I'll kill you. Do you suppose that I, the emperor of the air, need rest? I'm not mortal. I'm the embodiment of one who flew up over the Andes and never came down. He was received up into heaven, and I am the last to be interested in him."

"You will. Now go to bed and get a good rest preparatory to your journey."

"Ethel, you're trying to fool me. If you say anything more I'll kill you."

"Do you suppose that I, the emperor of the air, need rest? I'm not mortal. I'm the embodiment of one who flew up over the Andes and never came down. He was received up into heaven, and I am the last to be interested in him."

"You will. Now go to bed and get a good rest preparatory to your journey."

"Ethel, you're trying to fool me. If you say anything more I'll kill you."

"Do you suppose that I, the emperor of the air, need rest? I'm not mortal. I'm the embodiment of one who flew up over the Andes and never came down. He was received up into heaven, and I am the last to be interested in him."

"You will. Now go to bed and get a good rest preparatory to your journey."

"Ethel, you're trying to fool me. If you say anything more I'll kill you."

"Do you suppose that I, the emperor of the air, need rest? I'm not mortal. I'm the embodiment of one who flew up over the Andes and never came down. He was received up into heaven, and I am the last to be interested in him."

"You will. Now go to bed and get a good rest preparatory to your journey."

"Ethel, you're trying to fool me. If you say anything more I'll kill you."

"Do you suppose that I, the emperor of the air, need rest? I'm not mortal. I'm the embodiment of one who flew up over the Andes and never came down. He was received up into heaven, and I am the last to be interested in him."

"There is one thing about the matter that I have not mentioned. The voice was one of the softest, most melodious I ever heard. While I was listening to it, while dressing and as I sailed forth I could hear the poor girl in the room outside to indicate that she was a girl—planning with her man to go to bed and get the needed rest for his journey to the planet Mars. It was evident to me that she was shut up with a lunatic, and I dressed lest she be murdered before I could reach her.

I hailed an empty hack, told the driver to take me to 85 Merton avenue and be quick about it. He asked me where it was, and I told him it was at Merton avenue. He must find it, and if it is not there, he would pay me back. With this I got into the back, banged the door, and the coachman drove on. Where to go I did not seem to know any more than I did. After going back and forth a few times and turning several corners he had a hunch, and turned in a different direction from any he had yet followed. My first thought was to take the policeman with me; but somehow I couldn't bring myself to share with any one the pleasure of relieving a woman in distress—that is, if it were not to be for one to tell me to leave him.

The driver finally stopped in the middle of the street. I opened the door and asked:

"Well, have you found Merton avenue?"

"This is Merton avenue, sir," was the reply, "but I can find the number."

He drove back and forth, while it seemed to me that I should go wild with impatience. Then, suddenly catching sight of a number of people, he stopped, and hurried along the street till I found No. 85. The house stood by itself, no other being within a hundred yards. I ran up the steps and entered. I heard a voice, and, entering without ringing, I went around to the rear and fortunately found a window unlocked. Entering, I ran into the lower hall and stooped softly up stairs. I heard a voice.

On the weapon I had brought with me was a small rope. Armed with this, I suddenly appeared at the door of the room within which I heard the voices and exclaimed:

"A message for the emperor of the air."

In the room, pacing back and forth and brandishing a knife, was a young man about twenty years old. A girl of eighteen was following him about talking with him in a voice of great distress. She turned at once on hearing my voice.

"Are you the emperor of the air?" I asked the man.

"I am."

"I have been sent by the King of Space and of Infinite Ether to guide you to a new machine, a machine that will bear you not only to Mars, a neighboring planet, but to Neptune, the most distant, and thence to the fixed stars."

My mind was to his proposed trip to Mars. I awakened confidence at once.

"Where is this machine?" he asked.

"I am depured by the king of space to conduct you to it. Come. I have a carriage ready. You must depart before the break of dawn."

The knife dropped from his hand. Instead of using it on the girl he kissed her and followed me down to the carriage. Having whispered to the coachman to drive as fast as possible, I got in beside the emperor. On arrival at the station I beckoned to a policeman, who came to the carriage.

"This is the emperor of the air," I said, pressing the policeman's arm by way of warning. "Don't let him out while I am in the carriage."

"I'll be out directly," I said to the sergeant at the desk my story. We hunted up the address of an insane asylum, and in half an hour, without even using the rope weapon I had brought, we had him under confinement.

From the asylum I drove back to the house from which I had removed the patient. Though it was late, I was waiting for the young girl to come again. She did not come, but what happened?

"On arrival I rang the bell and was admitted by her. She questioned me eagerly with her eyes. I told her that the young man was where he would be, and that I had come to get him out again. Then I asked her to explain matters."

"He is my brother," she said. "Unfortunately he has sufficient means to indulge in aviation. His ambition has led him to such a point that he would not care to be a burden to me."

Paderewski once dared to affront the czar, who was so enraged that he sent a note commanding him to leave St. Petersburg, where he had been booked for a number of concerts, within twenty-four hours. The czar had sent for him and paid him a neat compliment, but is said to have received the reply, "Sir, I am a Pole."

Snubbed the czar.

Paderewski once dared to affront the czar, who was so enraged that he sent a note commanding him to leave St. Petersburg, where he had been booked for a number of concerts, within twenty-four hours. The czar had sent for him and paid him a neat compliment, but is said to have received the reply, "Sir, I am a Pole."

No Chance to Be Cheap.

"What do you do daily preparing to be married?"

"I'm saving up to buy an engagement ring."

"Something especially expensive?"

"It'll have to be. I can't afford to buy a diamond ring."

After locking the house I excused Miss Ethel Houghton to the home of her brother-in-law, and the remained there for the night. The next morning I was asked to assure myself that she had not suffered from her distressing experience, but found that the reaction had kept her bed.

The rest of this story is not to be told, except so far as it concerns the young aviator. He recovered within a brief period, but was persuaded by his sister to let aviation alone. She had enough of it, and her brother understood that it was best to let him alone. The young man is still a lunatic, but the reaction for the night was great distress to her, to say nothing of the probability of his understanding her better.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack. As a matter of fact, I have not far from me, since his phone was on the same party telephone wire.

There is one thing about the matter that I have not mentioned. The voice was one of the softest, most melodious I ever heard. While I was listening to it, while dressing and as I sailed forth I could hear the poor girl in the room outside to indicate that she was a girl—planning with her man to go to bed and get the needed rest for his journey to the planet Mars. It was evident to me that she was shut up with a lunatic, and I dressed lest she be murdered before I could reach her.

I hailed an empty hack, told the driver to take me to 85 Merton avenue and be quick about it. He asked me where it was, and I told him it was at Merton avenue. He must find it, and if it is not there, he would pay me back. With this I got into the back, banged the door, and the coachman drove on. Where to go I did not seem to know any more than I did. After going back and forth a few times and turning several corners he had a hunch, and turned in a different direction from any he had yet followed. My first thought was to take the policeman with me; but somehow I couldn't bring myself to share with any one the pleasure of relieving a woman in distress—that is, if it were not to be for one to tell me to leave him.

The driver finally stopped in the middle of the street. I opened the door and asked:

"Well, have you found Merton avenue?"

"This is Merton avenue, sir," was the reply, "but I can find the number."

He drove back and forth, while it seemed to me that I should go wild with impatience. Then, suddenly catching sight of a number of people, he stopped, and hurried along the street till I found No. 85. The house stood by itself, no other being within a hundred yards. I ran up the steps and entered. I heard a voice, and, entering without ringing, I went around to the rear and fortunately found a window unlocked. Entering, I ran into the lower hall and stooped softly up stairs. I heard a voice.

On the weapon I had brought with me was a small rope. Armed with this, I suddenly appeared at the door of the room within which I heard the voices and exclaimed:

"A message for the emperor of the air."

In the room, pacing back and forth and brandishing a knife, was a young man about twenty years old. A girl of eighteen was following him about talking with him in a voice of great distress. She turned at once on hearing my voice.

"Are you the emperor of the air?" I asked the man.

"I am."

"I have been sent by the King of Space and of Infinite Ether to guide you to a new machine, a machine that will bear you not only to Mars, a neighboring planet, but to Neptune, the most distant, and thence to the fixed stars."

My mind was to his proposed trip to Mars. I awakened confidence at once.

"Where is this machine?" he asked.

"I am depured by the king of space to conduct you to it. Come. I have a carriage ready. You must depart before the break of dawn."

The knife dropped from his hand. Instead of using it on the girl he kissed her and followed me down to the carriage.

Having whispered to the policeman to drive as fast as possible, I got in beside the emperor.

On arrival at the station I beckoned to a policeman, who came to the carriage.

"This is the emperor of the air," I said, pressing the policeman's arm by way of warning.

"I'll be out directly," I said to the sergeant at the desk my story.

After locking the house I excused Miss Ethel Houghton to the home of her brother-in-law, and the remained there for the night. The next morning I was asked to assure myself that she had not suffered from her distressing experience, but found that the reaction had kept her bed.

The rest of this story is not to be told, except so far as it concerns the young aviator. He recovered within a brief period, but was persuaded by his sister to let aviation alone.

"No, sir, he was pretty violent, but he's all right," said the young man.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part of the story, which I have not told, I knew of no such attack.

As to that part

Patronizing Follows Persistent Advertising

SOUTHERN HOTEL

STEVE MANAHAN - PROPRIETOR

NEWLY OPENED. EVERYTHING UP-TO-DATE
WINES, SPIRITS, CIGARS, ETC.
—Only the Best Quality kept—
HOUSE STEAM-HEATED THROUGHOUT

BELLEVUE,

ALBERTA

The Rocky Mountain Sanatorium

at the Famous Sulphur Springs, Frank, Alberta.

Everything in this new and magnificent building is strictly first class. It is finished throughout in the most luxurious style, has also an elaborate bar, and the building throughout is fitted with every modern convenience. The building is located amidst some of the most majestic scenery in Western Canada.

Telephone in every room. Rates are moderate and the service is of the best.

THE FRANK SULPHUR SPRINGS

are considered to be the

BEST IN CANADA

Bellevue Meat Market

P. HART, - Proprietor

FRESH MEATS FRESH MEATS

Mutton Pork Veal Fish
Poultry Eggs Etc.

Fresh Beef from our own ranch
daily

Orders Receive Prompt Attention

Blairmore Hotel

D. C. DRAIN, Prop.

BLAIRMORE, ALTA.

OUR BAR IS STOCKED WITH THE FINEST WINES
LIQUORS AND CIGARS

Good Rooms. Good Meals. Rates, $2.00 per day and up

The Passburg Hotel

T. H. DUNCAN, Prop.

Bright, Clean Wholesome Rooms

The bar is well stocked with the finest wines, liquors and imported and domestic cigars.

Happenings in and Around Frank

BORN — On Sunday last, to Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Watson, a daughter.

Mrs. J. Dougall of Passburg, entertained eight of her lady friends at the Sanatorium on Tuesday.

Miss M. de Gentile, of Paris, and J. A. H. Paul, of Lille, France, are registered at the Rocky Mountain Sanatorium.

Mrs. R. W. Coulthard, of Blairmore, gave a card party to twenty-eight of her lady friends at the Rocky Mountain Sanatorium on Monday.

We are closing our business at Frank. The balance of our stock must be sold as quickly as possible. — SOMERTON BROS.

G. E. C. Martin was in town on Sunday. Mr. Martin is about to put on the market a new sub-division, near the South Fork and called Maxton.

Obituary. — Frank, it is said, sold on 3 guarantees that if you are not satisfied after using two-thirds of a bottle according to directions, your money will be refunded. It is up to you to try. Sold by dealers everywhere.

W. H. Fairfield, manager of the government experimental farm, at Lethbridge, arrived in Frank with his family on Saturday. They returned to Lethbridge on Monday.

Are you missing all the Bargains at Somerton Bros. If you want Jewelry, etc., at sacrifice prices you cannot afford to overlook this sale. — SOMERTON BROS., Frank.

W. Diamond, international board member of the U. M. W. of A., was in town from Michigan on Tuesday, and addressed the miners at a meeting held here in the afternoon.

At the Methodist conference just held at Calgary, Rev. W. T. Young was appointed to the pastorate of Knox Methodist church. He will assume his duties here immediately after Rev. K. Kingston leaves, which will be about the 1st of July.

A. Wicart, president of the West Canadian Collieries, gave a dinner to the manager and office staff of his company and to several invited guests, at the Rocky Mountain Sanatorium on Saturday evening last.

Miss Paul, deaconess of Knox Methodist church, occupied the pulpit in the church on Sunday evening last and delivered an excellent sermon. Her subject was "Paul's Mission to the Gentiles." The church was crowded and at the close of the service, Miss Paul received many words of praise for the splendid manner in which she conducted the service and for the able manner in which she handled her subject.

The village will shortly commence work on the building of a side walk, from opposite the coal chute to the west end of town. The coal company will build a sidewalk from the Sanatorium to connect with the one to be built by the town. The sidewalk will be on the north side of the street.

Considerable improvements are being effected on the grounds near the new Sanatorium. The weeds are being torn up and the ground nicely leveled in front of the building. A bridge will shortly be built across the river at the back of the building, the old buildings near the Sanatorium are being torn down and numerous other improvements made.

CHEAP RATES TO FRANK

Commencing Saturday, June 3rd, and continuing each Saturday and Sunday until September 30th, the Canadian Pacific Railway will give cheap rates over their line between Lethbridge and Macleod and Frank. The return fare from Lethbridge will be $3.20, and from Macleod $2.25. These rates were asked for by some of the Lethbridge and Macleod people some time ago, and we are sure that the people of Frank will be pleased to learn that their town has become such an important centre and, indeed, a great attraction.

These cheap rates will be a further inducement for people to visit the Rocky Mountain Sanatorium, and enjoy the beneficial qualities of the great Frank sulphur springs.

A. Wicart, president of the West Canadian Collieries, was in town this week and appeared to be favorably impressed with the general appearance of this place. Mr. Wicart visited the coal mine during his stay here.

If you are not satisfied after using according to directions one two-thirds of a bottle of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, you can have your money back. The tablets are made of the finest medicinal ingredients, improve the digestion, regulate the bowels. Give them a trial and get well. Sold by dealers everywhere.

Application has been made by J. A. Callan for wholesale liquor license in respect to premises situated on lot 8, in block 6, Victoria street, Blairmore. This will be considered by the board of license commissioners, at the Rocky Mountain Sanatorium, Frank, on Wednesday, June 28.

Fraser & Sinclair, of Blairmore, are erecting a hall for the United Mine Workers of America at Hillcrest. The building will be eighty feet long, thirty feet wide, two stories and will have a large basement. The ground floor will be used as a store while the upstairs will be made into a hall. The successful contractors sub-let the excavation and cement work to E. Morino. The building will be completed in the course of another four or five weeks.

It was decided at this meeting to distribute rations from Frank to the other local unions in the neighborhood. Those locals are, Blairmore, Lille, Bellevue, Hillcrest, Maple Leaf, Passburg and Burns.

Upwards of $10,000 worth of rations were received from wholesale houses and opened up, by the miners' union, at Frank, on Monday afternoon last. They are using the new store near Watson's and from this place the distribution of rations for the other camps will be conducted until the coal miners strike is over.

Miss Paul, deaconess of Knox Methodist church, occupied the pulpit in the church on Sunday evening last and delivered an excellent sermon. Her subject was "Paul's Mission to the Gentiles." The church was crowded and at the close of the service, Miss Paul received many words of praise for the splendid manner in which she conducted the service and for the able manner in which she handled her subject.

At a meeting of the Blairmore school board, held in W. A. Beebe's office on Friday evening last, it was moved by trustee Lyon and seconded by trustee Frayre that the board accept the tender of T. Ede for the purchase of $3,000 worth of school beauties at 50 per cent and the tenderer to give a premium of $15 — carried.

Miss Turner, principal of the school, asked to be granted a vacation from the time the school closed for the summer holidays until the first of January. It was moved by trustee Frayre and seconded by trustee Lyon that Miss Turner be granted a release and that secretary advise for a teacher to take the principal's place until the end of the year. This was carried. The secretary was also instructed to advertise for another teacher, one having second grade. This will mean an increase in the teaching staff made necessary by the increased number of scholars.

The matter of the large addition to the school house was brought up and thoroughly discussed. It was decided to proceed with the work immediately after the end of the summer term.

The matter of the large addition to the school house was brought up and thoroughly discussed. It was decided to proceed with the work immediately after the end of the summer term.

Happenings in and Around Bellevue

Mr. W. H. Irwin will succeed Rev. T. D. Jones as pastor of the Methodist church at Bellevue.

A. Ghesquier, secretary of the West Canadian Collieries, and Maurice Mestrier, mining engineer of the French government, were in town for a short while last week end.

Lame shoulder is almost invariably caused by rheumatism of the muscles and yields quickly to the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment. This liniment is not only prompt and effectual, but is in no way disagreeable to use. Sold by dealers everywhere.

A. Wicart, president of the West Canadian Collieries, was in town this week and appeared to be favorably impressed with the general appearance of this place. Mr. Wicart visited the coal mine during his stay here.

If you are not satisfied after using according to directions one two-thirds of a bottle of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, you can have your money back. The tablets are made of the finest medicinal ingredients, improve the digestion, regulate the bowels. Give them a trial and get well. Sold by dealers everywhere.

Application has been made by J. A. Callan for wholesale liquor license in respect to premises situated on lot 8, in block 6, Victoria street, Blairmore. This will be considered by the board of license commissioners, at the Rocky Mountain Sanatorium, Frank, on Wednesday, June 28.

Fraser & Sinclair, of Blairmore, are erecting a hall for the United Mine Workers of America at Hillcrest. The building will be eighty feet long, thirty feet wide, two stories and will have a large basement. The ground floor will be used as a store while the upstairs will be made into a hall. The successful contractors sub-let the excavation and cement work to E. Morino. The building will be completed in the course of another four or five weeks.

It was decided at this meeting to distribute rations from Frank to the other local unions in the neighborhood. Those locals are, Blairmore, Lille, Bellevue, Hillcrest, Maple Leaf, Passburg and Burns.

Upwards of $10,000 worth of rations were received from wholesale houses and opened up, by the miners' union, at Frank, on Monday afternoon last. They are using the new store near Watson's and from this place the distribution of rations for the other camps will be conducted until the coal miners strike is over.

Miss Paul, deaconess of Knox Methodist church, occupied the pulpit in the church on Sunday evening last and delivered an excellent sermon. Her subject was "Paul's Mission to the Gentiles." The church was crowded and at the close of the service, Miss Paul received many words of praise for the splendid manner in which she conducted the service and for the able manner in which she handled her subject.

At a meeting of the Blairmore school board, held in W. A. Beebe's office on Friday evening last, it was moved by trustee Lyon and seconded by trustee Frayre that the board accept the tender of T. Ede for the purchase of $3,000 worth of school beauties at 50 per cent and the tenderer to give a premium of $15 — carried.

Miss Turner, principal of the school, asked to be granted a vacation from the time the school closed for the summer holidays until the first of January. It was moved by trustee Frayre and seconded by trustee Lyon that Miss Turner be granted a release and that secretary advise for a teacher to take the principal's place until the end of the year. This was carried. The secretary was also instructed to advertise for another teacher, one having second grade. This will mean an increase in the teaching staff made necessary by the increased number of scholars.

The matter of the large addition to the school house was brought up and thoroughly discussed. It was decided to proceed with the work immediately after the end of the summer term.

The matter of the large addition to the school house was brought up and thoroughly discussed. It was decided to proceed with the work immediately after the end of the summer term.

The matter of the large addition to the school house was brought up and thoroughly discussed. It was decided to proceed with the work immediately after the end of the summer term.

FAREWELL SERMON

Many will regret to learn that Rev. K. Kington, who during the past six months has been pastor of Knox Methodist church, to which position he has filled with great credit to himself and with entire satisfaction to the large number of members and adherents of the church, is about to leave Frank. Mr. Kington will deliver his farewell sermon on Sunday evening next and will leave Frank some time next week for wider fields of usefulness.

McFARLANE

The Pool Room of The Pass

NEW TABLES

— ALSO —

English Billiard Table

— — —

The Best Bowling Alley

— — —

Frank Alberta

Passburg Shoeing Forge

Tye & Heywood. — Props.

Experienced in all branches of the trade

FIRST-CLASS WORK GUARANTEED

No order too large
Or none too small

Passburg Alta

J. WHILLER
CONTRACTOR & BUILDER

Estimates given on all kinds of work.

Lumber for sale. Houses to rent.

Prompt Attention and Good Workmanship Guaranteed.

J. WHILLER

Frank Alta

Empire Restaurant

Serves as good meals as any place in the Pass at all hours, on short notice and at moderate prices.

Frank Alberta

We Have Farm Lands For Sale

Farm Lands, ranging from 160 acres to 1760 acres, in and adjoining The Pass, for sale on easy terms. Also, B.C. Fruit Lands, situated on Vancouver Island and in the interior, that we have personally inspected.

James M. Carter
Real Estate Auctioneer

Lundbreck Alta.